

contractors, all as permitted or required by law, who may process your EU Data in performing

Questions: If you wish to exercise

These Supplemental Privacy Provisions for Persons in the European Union () are provided pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (“Regulation on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data”) (the), effective May 25, 2018.

These EU Privacy Provisions supplement Texas Southern University’s (TSU) Statement on Privacy

ource-tech-privacy-001.pdf as permitted or required by law. If you do not agree with these EU Privacy Provisions, please do not provide any EU Personal Data to TSU. If you choose not to provide any EU Personal Data that is necessary for TSU to provide you with specific products or services, TSU may not be able to provide those products or services to you.

Exercising TSU's official authority as a or other courses or programs offered to individuals in the EU. Access to your EU Personal Data by these Contractors is limited to the information reasonably necessary to perform their contracted functions. TSU requires Contractors to protect Personal Data on our behalf. We do not permit third parties to sell Personal Data we have shared with them.

TSU will transfer your EU Personal Data to third parties only where TSU is comfortable that they will protect your EU Personal Data. Where we know that a third party we have provided EU Personal Data to is Processing that EU Personal Data in a manner contrary to the GDPR, we will take reasonable steps to prevent or terminate Processing by that third party unless and until the third party can Process EU Personal Data in compliance with the GDPR.

TSU may share your EU Personal Data with various government authorities in response to subpoenas, court orders, or other legal process; to establish or exercise our legal rights; to defend against legal claims; or as otherwise required by law. TSU also may share your EU Personal Data when we believe it is appropriate to investigate, prevent, or take action regarding unlawful or suspected illegal activities; to protect and defend the rights, property, or safety of TSU, TSU's technology network, TSU's students, employees, and others.

TSU's websites, technology network, and online course platforms that contain your EU Personal Data are primarily operated and managed on servers located within the United States.

TSU may permanently store and maintain, among other things, your name, subject(s), enrollment, registration and graduation details, unique TSU identification number, date of birth, verification, residency, affidavits, financial aid, grades, classes, courses, transcripts, disciplinary, and degree and employment related records containing your EU Personal Data: (i) to comply with TSU's obligations to you, including taking steps to enter into an employment, enrollment, or other contract with you; (ii) to comply with TSU's legal obligations; (iii) for reasons that are in the public interest do

Personal to

theu lment, you; do

manently

The right to be informed of how your EU Personal Data are being used – this information is set forth in these EU Privacy Provisions and any documents linked to these EU Privacy Provisions

The right of access to your EU Personal Data

The right to have your inaccurate EU Personal Data rectified

The right to have your EU Personal Data